ESSENTIAL OILS FOR PET PROFESSIONALS

As a pet professional you encounter stressed pets. When therapeutic grade Essential Oils (EOs) are used properly, they are a very safe and effective modality that may be used alone or in conjunction with other techniques to ease anxiety and promote wellness. The safety and effectiveness of an EO will depend greatly on its quality and how it is used. As with medications, the strength (purity) of the oil, the amount per dose, the frequency of dosages, and the route of administration will all play a role in its effect. Essential oil selection, concerns and use of some of the more common EOs in our four legged companions will be discussed. Pet parents are welcome. Do NOT bring a pet to class.

REMBRANDT: HIS LIFE AND HIS WORK
Rembrandt is one of the towering figures in the history of European art and many would call him the greatest of all painters. From the early 1650’s until his death at the age of 69, Rembrandt produced a remarkable body of work. Far from diminishing as he aged and despite personal and professional setbacks, his creativity gathered fresh energy as he constantly searched for a new style that was both expressive and meaningful. No one before Rembrandt made the ordinary stuff of humanity seem so deeply serious and interesting. His perceptiveness is unmatched as a man and as an artist.

THE SPIRITUALITY OF RALPH WALDO EMERSON

Emerson once dreamed that he saw the world, diminished to the size of an apple, floating above him. "Then an angel took it in his hand and brought it to me and said, 'This thou must eat.' And I ate the world." Emerson devoted life. He read voraciously, wrote relentlessly, and averaged 80 lectures a year. His always returned to the same topics: trusting oneself rather than authorities and scriptures, finding the divine within, and realizing that "every natural fact reveals a spiritual fact." This presentation examines the roots of Emerson's American spirituality and the call to the spiritual life found in his major writings.

VENETIAN RENAISSANCE & THE INTRODUCTION OF OIL: PT 1

Venetian Renaissance art deserves a unique place in this period of art history. Unfortunately, the contribution of many of its important artists such as Giorgione and the Bellini family has not been emphasized enough. This class explores the city's unique culture and its reliance on the sea, the reliance which at once separated it from other Italian cities and yet created opportunities for artists to reveal its great splendor and mystery. This includes the introduction of oil paint which allowed artists to explore the subtleties and beauty of light and color so important in Venetian Renaissance art.

EVERYDAY LIFE IN EAST GERMANY: A LOOK ACROSS THE BORDER
It was perhaps one of the greatest adventures in American military history: the Berlin airlift of 1948-49! When Soviet troops closed all access routes to West-Berlin by land, sea, and rail, thus threatening the lives of 2.5 million people and provoking the first major international crisis of the Cold War, American General Lucius D. Clay did not hesitate, and proceeded to build a bold and fantastic bridge across the sky, involving 700 planes and 250,000 flights over a period of 14 months! Join German Historian Anette Isaacs for a fascinating discussion of this exciting time in her country’s postwar history.

FREDERIC REMINGTON: AMERICAN ILLUSTRATOR, SCULPTOR, WRITER
For many Americans, the name Frederic Remington is synonymous with the realistic portrayal of our Old West. His works of both fine and commercial art are a unified effort to record a special time and a special place, with great care and enthusiasm, with colorful vital figures and the exciting saga of life against the omnipresent elements of danger and death. From his first trip to the west in 1881 until his death in 1909, Remington produced several thousand paintings and drawings cast 22 bronze, wrote over 90 magazine articles and 8 books, and provided the illustration for hundreds of magazine articles and books.

THE BATTLE OF ELSENBORN RIDGE

The Battle of Elsenborn Ridge was the only sector of the American front lines during the early stages of the Battle of the Bulge where the Germans failed to advance. While the 101st Airborne’s brave defense and Patton’s extraordinary relief of Bastogne are more celebrated, the defense of Elsenborn Ridge by the 1st, 2nd and 99th Infantry Divisions ranks as one of most spirited and remarkable feats of military strategy and tactics by the American Army in World War II. With no time to plan a cohesive defense, these three divisions met the German Panzers head-on and won. That victory achieved more success in the Battle of the Bulge than was ever publicized and deserves more attention today in hindsight.

THE MIGRATION OF THE MONARCHS

“Each year the Monarch Butterflies of the northeast and Canada start an amazing migration that will take 4 generations to complete! The migration is spectacular for the distance that a single Monarch Butterfly has to travel to make it to the winter resting ground in Mexico. It also is amazing that we have discovered that it is the 4th generation, born in Canada that flies 5000 miles to the mountain tops around Angangueo Mexico! Scientists are still researching to find an explanation for how these butterflies to know where to congregate together and why it takes three generations for Monarchs to return to Canada. This class

Aides from simply taking pictures, our way of seeing the world lets us recognize situations, composition, subject matter, light quality, patterns, shadows, textures, juxtapositions, moments in time, and we then put these elements together to create images that communicate something deep inside of us. To share with others our own distinct impression of the world. Completion of Beginning Photography and Intermediate Photography or equivalent knowledge is recommended prior to registration.

A well-known phrase is a picture is worth a thousand words. But what does that really mean? And how can we use photography to make creative art photographs? Every environment and every moment offers infinite possibilities for creating compelling artistic photographs. ### THE ALLMAN BROTHERS AND THE GRATEFUL DEAD

Drummers sitting at two drum kits, with guitarists on everyone’s best list, have fueled each of these bands. This unique fact, however, is not the only thing that causes us to put these two Hall of Fame bands into the same class. You will discuss the incredible musicianship, the famous concerts, the sharing of audiences and the vast legacy that the bands have shared. In addition, you’ll listen to some of our favorite music along the way. With the Allman’s it’s the truly frightening vocal of Whipping Post and the absolutely swinging rhythm of Don’t Want You No More. For the Dead it is their ab- solute grasp of the entirety of American music fused with a mind-boggling grasp of collective improvisation. Former Tower Records managers Paul Gongola and Scott Cashman will spend 2 evenings discussing these artists and offer their analysis of what uniquely distinguishes these bands and why they will matter to our grandchildren.

WINES OF ITALY: NORTHERN ITALY

Marcel Fiori will show you how to navigate the great variety of Italian wine. Northern Italy is primarily known for its red wine though there are some whites to discover. Some of the most well-known reds include Nebbiolo and Amarone. You will get to know the Piedmont region where Barolo and Barbaresco command a high price tag. The same region’s Dolcetto and Barbera come at a relatively better price. Valpolicella is both a distinct viticultural zone and wine. You will also try some very drinkable white wines. The omnipresent Chardonnay is present though not thought of as the highest quality in Italy. Gewurztraminer isn’t always German but is of good quality in Northern Italy. Piedmont enters the white discussion with its sweet and popular Moscato which can be either a still or sparkling wine. Students must be at least 21 years of age or older to enroll. Each week features a tasting.

WINES OF ITALY: NORTHERN ITALY
You will continue to explore Marcel Fiori’s ideas about the wine of Italy as you focus on Northeast Italy. Fine, elegant whites from Alto Adige compliment the fuller examples in Friuli-Venezia Giulia, where there are interesting local varieties along with the expected international varieties. This is also the land of perhaps Italy’s finest sweet wines. Finally, each of the three provinces have high quality reds. You can find Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot and Pinot Nero but, originality comes from the native grapes: Corvina Valpolicella, the powerful Amarone, Lagrein and Teroldego and the previously obscure Pignolo and Schioppettino. Make these household names in your home! Students must be 21 years of age or older to enroll. Each week includes a tasting.

WINES OF ITALY: CENTRAL ITALY

It is in Central Italy that you will discover Chianti (home to the Brunello wines) and the Super Tuscans. Sangiovese is the superstar grape of this region. With all this star power comes the classic straw-covered bottles of Chianti which actually came into use because of the inferior glass used to make bottles in the region. That is not a commentary on the wine. There is great flexibility in the blending recipe for Chianti. This creates some of the variability in styles among Chiantis. Lighter bodied styles have a higher proportion of white grape varieties blended in, while red only Chiantis are fuller and richer. Super Tuscan is an unofficial classification that started as a reaction to mandatory red/white blends. Their Sangiovese/Cabernet Sauvignon blends were coveted. By the 1990s the mandatory red/white Chianti blend was a thing of the past, but the Super Tuscan was already born. Let Marcel Fiori untangle this web for you while you taste the best the region has to offer. Students must be 21 years of age or older to enroll. Each week features a tasting.

WINES OF ITALY: SOUTHERN ITALY

Southern Italy is know for its archaeology and wine. You won’t have time for the archaeology but Marcel Fiori will help you discover the wine. Long ago Greeks brought non-native grape varieties to this region creating one of the greatest areas of diversity on the earth. Fiano is a creamy white. Greco is another white that thrives in the south. Aglianico is a red, once saved from extinction, that is now known for its aging potential. Gaglioppo is a ruby colored red while Negroamaro is known as the “bitter black”. Primitivo might be a relative of California’s Zinfandel and is one to this regions most popular varieties. You will understand much about the wine of Southern Italy as a result of your two nights with Marcel sampling the wine of Southern Italy. Students must be 21 years of age or older to enroll. Each week features a tasting.
